Arcadia Investment Advisors opens new office in Boise, Idaho

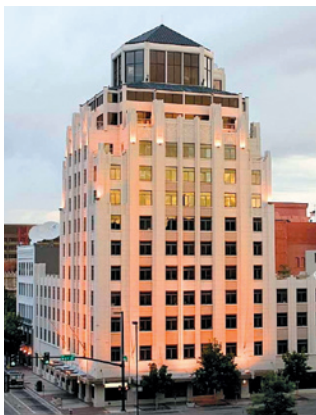

Now with offices in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho

October 22, 2007, Boise, ID: To better serve its growing number of clients, Arcadia Investment Advisors announced the addition of its third office in Boise, Idaho. Arcadia, a fee-only investment advisory firm with over $170 million in assets under management, was founded in 1996 in Portland, Oregon and recently relocated its headquarters to Vancouver, Washington's historic Fort Vancouver area.

It is a natural progression for Arcadia to have a location in Boise, to both better serve its existing Idaho clients and to facilitate continued growth in its Boise based business.

Arcadia also announced that Howard Teutsch has joined the firm as an Investment Manager.

Howard received his B.B.A degree in Business Management from Boise State University. He has been a member of the local business community for over 14 years, having served as the General Manager for Wireless Broadcasting Services, a cable television company located in the valley, until 2004. Most recently, Howard was an Investment Advisor with Emerald Financial Advisors, located in Nampa, ID.

Howard will oversee Boise operations in the new office located on the 4th floor of the beautiful Hoff Building in downtown Boise, Suite 406. Existing clients are invited to stop by and see the new office space, as well as anyone interested in finding out more about Arcadia and its investment advisory business.
